Re: United States v. Fareed Mumuni
Criminal Docket No. 15-393 (MKB)

Dear Chief Judge Brodie:

The government respectfully submits this letter in opposition to the defendant's request for a 30-day adjournment to sentencing. As the Court is aware, on January 21, 2020, the Second Circuit issued a mandate vacating the original sentence and remanding the matter for resentencing. (ECF No. 163). In the approximately two years since the Second Circuit's mandate, there have been repeated continuances of the resentencing hearing, none of which have been requested by the government. The government believes that no more continuances should be granted, especially where the victims of the defendant's crimes are entitled to prompt closure of this painful matter. See 18 U.S.C. § 3771(a)(7) ("A crime victim has . . . [t]he right to proceedings free from unreasonable delay.").

Respectfully submitted,

BREON PEACE
United States Attorney
